Art Unit: 1631

The Art Unit location of your application in the USPTO has changed. To aid in correlating any papers for this application, all further correspondence regarding this application should be directed to Art Unit 1631.

This application has been filed with informal drawings which are acceptable for examination purposes only. Formal drawings will be required when the application is allowed.

The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.

Claim 6 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. The claims are vague and indefinite.

- (a) The recitation of "biomolecular interaction" is vague and indefinite. This rejection is repeated for reasons already of record (e.g., Office action mailed May 21, 2001, page 3, item (f)). Applicants' argument (paper no. 15, page 6) is not persuasive because no definition of the term is seen at any of the locations (page 2, lines 15-19; page 3, lines 3-4; and page 6, lines 18-19) of the application alluded to by applicants.

Claims 1-3, 6-13, 65-68, 73, and 74 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Hoffman, Artificial Organs 16: 43 (1992). This rejection is repeated for reasons already of record (e.g., Office action mailed May 21, 2001, page 4). Applicants' arguments (paper no. 15, pages 7-9) are not convincing because the materials disclosed in Hoffman et al meet all of the limitations of the claims even though a different terminology is used. For example, immobilized nucleic acids used in a binding assay are bound to an anchor, and have an adaptor function in regard to the nucleic acid that bind to (see page 44 of the reference). Additionally, Figure 1 of the reference describes a composition with all of the limitations of the claimed compositions.

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
